

Janice Marie Ray

January 5, 1954 - June 2, 2013

On Monday, June 3, 2013, Janice Marie Ray of Upper Marlboro, Md., departed this life in Temple Hills, Md., after a sudden illness. Daughter of the late John and Lucille Coleman. Wife of Bernard Ray. She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving daughter Jennifer Marie Turner and her Grandchildren, Javeigh and Javyn.

She worked for the Department of Mental Health, and Safeway for many years. While Janice was a hard worker, she truly enjoyed life. She was a life member of the Swing Phi Swing Sorority. Janice enjoyed her many years of volunteering with the Make a Wish Foundation. Janice was loved by all who knew her, forming new friendships everywhere she went.

Family and friends will be received on Saturday, June 8, 2013, from 3-5 pm at Marshall- March Funeral Home, 4308 Suitland Road, Suitland, Md. On Monday, June 10th, 2013, a Celebration of Life will be held at Life Church, 6707 Woodyard Rd. Upper Marlboro, Md. Viewing will begin at 10am with services to follow.

As a symbol of unity and peace, on Monday, family and friends are asked to wear something purple.

“ Janice may you rest in peace. You were on of the best and most friendly cashier at our Safeway. I will miss our conversations and your warm smile. God knows best and now he has one of the best at his side.
