I am going to miss your face beautiful spirit. You have been consistently a part of my spiritual walk since joining the Reid family on Good Luck Road. Always greeting me with smiles and kind words. And always starting off each conversation where we left off as if it were yesterday. You always took care to ask about my daughter Bailey or encourage her to do well in school and listen to her mother. I know you are in a better place. But I wouldn't have mind keeping you around just a little longer. Love you always! - Stacy Carter

Our heartfelt condolences to Rev. Janice Williams' family and all who love her! We will never forget Rev. Williams and how she welcomed our family to Reid Temple. Remembering her sweet and gently smile, and loving teaching and guidance...and how she claimed our son Storee as one of her babies. Rev. Williams, we love you! Rest in Heaven our beloved sister in Christ!

Rev Williams will be truly missed at Reid Temple. I didn't know she personally but her loving spirit warmed the hearts of everyone she met with a gift from God. May God place His loving arms around the family and give them peace.

Our heartfelt condolences to Rev. Janice Williams' family and all who loved her! I will always remember during one of the Reid Temple AME altar calls, she held my hand as she walked the aisles. I could feel her excitement for the Lord and her spirit move from her hand to mine. Although I am a long time Reid Temple member I would sometimes still reach out during one of her alter call walks just to touch her hand to feel her loving spirit.

“ My prayers and condolences to the family of Rev. Janice C. Williams.

Rev. Janice was a true woman of God. Her smile lit up the entire sanctuary. I will always remember her genuine kindness towards me. Rev. Janice always had a kind word or a word of encouragement to share with me and everyone she encountered. She was a prayer warrior, an exhorter, an evangelist, a greeter, a preacher, an advocate for seniors, a teacher, and a friend.

I met her over 30 years ago when I first joined Reid Temple on Good Luck Road. Rev. Janice loved the ushers at Reid Temple. She could often be found cheering us on when we marched during the offering.

When I think about what Rev. Janice C. Williams meant to me as a minister in training, I am reminded of her constant words of encouragement. She saw things in me that I didn't see in myself. She was a true big sister in ministry to me. I will miss her forever.

“ Rev Janice Williams has the biggest smile one could ever have. I first met Rev Williams when Reid Temple was located at Good Luck Road. She was the friendliest person one could ever meet. I will always remember her for the high spirits she brought to the church and every where she went.

I will always remember when we were both working in Roslyn, VA. Whenever she saw me, she would shout my name and jump up and down with so much joy. I'll miss her so much.

“ To the family and friends - Rev. Janice Williams will be missed at Reid Temple A.M.E.. I will personally miss her very much. I remember the very first day I visited Reid Temple that "SMILE" immediately captured my attention followed by an introduction and such a warm "welcome to Reid Temple, if this your first visit with us, please let we take you to your seat". At once I felt at home, this is the place I want to come and worship. Her morning prayer so gracefully fulfilling at all times.

That Sunday when I decided to become a member of Reid Temple, it was Rev. Janice Williams who walked me to the Alter praying as we walked along and from that day forward she became such a spiritual influence in my life that if I didn't see her at service I made inquiries about her absence just to make sure she was alright because of her medical problems. Rev. Janice Williams was such a humble person, her great personality preceded her at all times, she was a great mentor, a true heavenly sister, a confidant and most of all you were always graced by her reverence. Rev. Janice you will be miss in per but your graceful spirit will never be forgotten at Reid temple A.M.E. Glendale.

Many Blessings.

When Master's Touch ministry heard the called to go out and witness and feed the homeless you were one of the first person to encouraged us to not to listen to the negativity but too do the Lords will as you gave us the tracks to hand out to the homeless. I'm so grateful for the years of knowing you and the example you displayed of what a real discipline is. I will miss seeing you go up that aisle and bring people down for salvation. So until we meeting again rest you truly deserve it.*

“ *I have known Rev. Janice for many years; actually since she was in her early twenties. She was a warm and loving person. She had a beautiful smile, behind which lurked a jovial spirit. She could issue a quip that would warm your heart and make you smile. As we aged and my husband became ill, she would often find her way to whatever rehab facility that he was assigned to. They would banter back and forth, recalling and sharing experiences and memories that lifted his spirits and make him smile. He thoroughly enjoyed her visits. We will truly miss her. But we know that she is being rewarded now for all of the joy and happiness that she wrought here on earth. Our condolences to the family.

“ Sincere condolences to the family of Rev. Janice Williams. You were blessed to have had her as part of your lives, and I know she will be missed. She had a sweet and caring spirit that emanated from her radiant smile. It was a blessing to us also to have known her. From the time we met her at Reid Temple on Michigan Avenue, she always greeted us warmly. If I was alone, after greeting me, her next words were always, “How is Mr. Montgomery?” She was true to her calling and stayed the course. Her work here is done and now she has received her golden crown. May she rest peacefully in paradise.

“ Rev. Janice "Jan" Williams, my Best Friend in Ministry and Mentor. Thank God for so many cherished memories...so much that I can say. You taught me how to minister and evangelize in love; and encouraged me in so many ways. There wasn't a person who you met that you didn't offer Jesus and invite them to church! You were family and my big sister. Thank your for unselfishly sharing your time and blessing me and my family (Jennifer, Nicholas and Jenesis). Miss Janice Williams was a kind, positive, and caring neighbor. I lived next door to her for many years, and had the opportunity to know her grandmother, mother, uncles, aunts, nephews, and nieces. They were a loving and caring family. I miss Janice and will remember her kindness.

I will miss Rev Janice Williams tremendously. I met her at the Good Luck Road location. She was so friendly to me and anyone she encountered. She was a caring person who would help anyone out. I will always remember her for the numerous times she would shout out at me when she saw me in Roslyn, VA where we both worked and would always say something funny to make me laugh.

My condolences and prayers to the family.

I will truly miss Rev. Janice. She was the first person when I came to Reid Temple on Michigan Ave that took my daughter under her watch to make sure she knew the important of sharing and caring about others and also about giving her time, and as a young person to help others. I would tell her she was the best Godmother to my grandsons. Miss you G Mom. Will always remember you.

I will deeply miss my best Church colleague. Service at Reid Temple won't be the same without her. We grew up together and shared many life changing experiences. Janice was one of the first people to join Reid Temple under my Father, the late Presiding Elder. Rev. Kenneth White. We shared that special bond. My son (Aaron Walton) was taken under her wing as a toddler. He will miss her as well. She was my Church advocate for persons with "Different Abilities" and worked closely with the Bridges Ministry at Reid. Its' still hard to digest that her smiling face won't be physically seen at the Temple.

I'm so thankful that there is a resurrection, when we shall see each other again.
