“ As the days turn into night and back..I reflect on fond memories of time spent and the Love you shared.I could always count on sound advice and guidance directing me to be a successful contributor to society.I will always cherish every moment we spent together..I am who I am today because you told me I could be anything I wanted to be if I worked hard at it..Grandma you were the tree that all Jones' sprung from..Your children are your branches..and I am one of many of your fruit..I too have become a tree with my own branches and one fruit..Ava..I'm praying that I can be as great an inspiration to her as you were to me...You will always be apart of my journey..leading me to greater things and further down this trail called Life..I honor your life and the sacrifices you made for your family..No one walking this earth is perfect..but Grandma..YOU WERE CLOSE...and that's enough...Thank You for everything I will always LOVE YOU!!!!!!

“ My very best memory was Easter you ensured all your grand children had their paper bags filled with candy and we dyed eggs. that was so special to me as a kid. as I got older I was with you a lot down Lynchburg traveling visiting relatives and one impact I will never forget is how you volunteered everywhere I never understood it then but when I got older how important it is to help people. You help me get in the church as a pre teen never really could get it but when you help me sign up for bible study and children ministry, I enjoy learning the power of the Lord. thank you for it. Nobody really knows people true feelings, they don't know about what we been through together so they can only assume. God knows my heart and how grateful I am to have had a wonderful soul like you as a grandmother. R.I.P grandma
