“ I would like to extend my sincere condolences to the Garland Family. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away your loved one. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by being told that your loved one is up in heaven. The Bible, however, holds out a much different hope. It is God's desire and promise that you see Ms. Jean again in the near future, not in an unknown heaven but right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions where pain, sickness or death will be no more. Please read these promises at John 5;28,29; Psalms 37;29; and Rev. 21;3,4. If your heart yearns to see Ms. Jean again, I will gladly assist you to learn how you can make this sure hope your very own. Take care,##imported-begin##Roxanne Thompson##imported-end##

“ Dear Greer,
Just saw your Mom's obit in the Post and wanted you to know how sorry I am for your loss.
She was a great lady. I will always remember her care and concern for our patients and her great wisdom.
Love and prayers,

“ To Greer & Jackie:

Grand was the one the got me over with my operation.

Grand was the one that come to see me.

We have shared some days and years together.

I will miss her Lord knows I will. God knows best and he makes no mistake.

You are in my prayers and we will see here again.##imported-begin##Pat Brice & James Griggs##imported-end##

“ To: Garland, Massey & Kinney Families.

My deepest sympathy goes out to your families at this time. Praying for comfort and strength. Sorry I can not be there with you.

I am the mother of Kennon Broadhurst. Dubray was my son's college roommate and also the best man in his wedding.

May God continue to bless you.

In Deepest Sympathy,

“ To the Family of Mrs. Jean Garland,

Mrs. Garland was so dear to us and we want you to know how sadden we are to hear of her passing. She was a very kind and loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and friend.

We will always cherish her memory and the special friendship she shared with our own mother, Kathryn.

May God give you comfort and strength during this most difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Sincerely,

*The Coleman Family##imported-begin##Cynthia
