“ I met Jerome in like 1996-1997 when I became an in-house courier for Hogan. He had some very captivating stories about his life experiences and was instrumental in helping me stay away from the streets. I later joined the military and have not lived in DC area since 2007. I last saw Jerome in 2017 when I returned home for a brief stint. We took this picture. Jerome and his cousin Julio who I have unfortunately have been unable to keep up with were good solid men. Jerome is missed badly. I had no idea he was even gone. I had been texting him for some time now and finally decided to google him and found this memories page dedicated to him. To his family my deepest condolences and prayers go your way though I may have never met most of you. He touched the lives of many young men along the way, guiding them through his experiences both good and bad.

“ My condolences and prayers of comfort, and strength, to the Stewart family. Close to 27 years ago, is when I met Jerome as a moped driver that supported Hogan. He was my right hand man making tight deadlines dealing with the Lawyers & their Secretaries in a professional manner. As I was ready to move on, I recommended and trained him for the position. Every time I would get a chance to stop by to visit him he would always thank me for the opportunity. RIP Jerome! May his memory be a blessing to all that he touched.
