“ Cousin Jerry you will always be remembered and have a special place in our heart. Reflecting on the laughter, jokes, and good times we shared at the family reunions and our road trips to the reunions. The times you came and visit in NC. One of my fondest memories is the family reunion at Myrtle Beach and we were walking the strip. When it was time to go, Jerry was no where to be found. Note, Jerry walked with a cane and a little limp but he was able to get around just as well as we did. So we began to walk up and down the strip looking for Cousin Jerry. About 20 minutes later here he comes sprinting with a bag of food. We were like Jerry where have you been? We thought you were lost. He stated "You may have been lost but I wasn't lost; I knew where I was going. I was hungry and I saw that restuarant..." He gave that little smirk grin and chuckle. That was my cousin as I knew him. He loved the Lord and loved to go to church. I know in his last days he would spend hours on the phone with my mother (who is a pastor) having church and reflecting on their childhood. May you rest in peace. Loving you always. Thalia
