“ *In memory of Jesse "Butch" Blackwell. I have many fond memories of you. We always laughed together, had fun together and enjoyed each other when ever we would meet. You were my true brother in every since of the word and I love you. I admire how you went forth with what you wanted to do and you were successful. Sorry, I never made it to Amsterdam to visit, my only regret.
Rest in peace my brother.*

“ Dear family of Jesse,

*From Amsterdam I will send my condolences to you! I will miss my friend Jesse, our serious conversations, our talks in the Coffee Company where we had a lot of fun.
Our casual encounters in the Supermarket.
In short, h!e was a loveley friend, with his humor and big smile!
I feel blessed having known him*

May God bless you.

“ Jesse was a true gentleman. A kind and generous person. He never complained, and always had a kind word. I will miss him forever...his friendship, his voice. May he rest in peace and may his memory be a blessing.

My sincere condolences to the entire Blackwell family. May God's love surround you at this difficult time.

*Sincerely,
Cecilia Fasano*

“ I want to wish the whole family lots of strength, especially today; I had the pleasure of knowing him for lots of years and had a last fabulous Thanksgiving with him at Cecilia's and was lucky to meet him at a tramstop a few weeks before he passed, happy to have had him in my life and I can see him winking at us from his cloud, lots of love, Dick van Oosten.

Jessie Blackwell was a neighbor and a friend. We grew up together and anytime I went in my backyard I was able to look in their yard. Many times His family and mine would converse across the Fenceline. We grew up in a neighborhood where the children gathered on a field and played baseball, we played tag, and so many other things. Jesse was much older than me and fellowship more with his siblings my age. The greatest memory I have of Jesse is his willingness to speak truth and to protect!
