“ Mrs. Wilson and my mom were the best of friends and neighbors. She was a child of God and her life was His sermon. She was a kind, compassionate and generous soul who always welcomed me into her home long after my parents passed. Homemade pound cakes were her specialty that she gifted during the holidays to her friends and family. I am grateful that God allowed my family to be a part of her life journey. Sending lots of love and prayers to her family and friends.

“ I don't even know where to start my Aunt Jessie was one of kind! I have nothing but great memories i honestly feel like she spoiled me, she knew all of my favorite foods. And if she knew I was coming she almost certainly have them all waiting on me! She will truly be missed but never forgotten! Forever loved your nephew Dwayne!!!

“ Aunt Jessie you will be missed. Thanks for ALWAYS sharing that smile and lots of good advice/laughs. You were such a lady and I appreciate you sharing this gift with me.....I learned from one of the best. I appreciate how you made time for me when I was in DC on travel for work. Love you more than words can express.

“ I love you, Grandma! I am going to miss you so much. I'll make sure I keep your pound cake recipe going, but nobody can bake it like you. :-)
