“ Well one thing I can say is that you had a lot of heart girl, even down to when you were diagnosed with your illness and you told me about it, I saw COURAGE in the flesh emanating from the deepest virtue of your Being. You were the kind of person, that took what Life handed to you and you made the most from it. I can really say that you lived Life and that I know your "Ruby Splendor" was always in tact, and that you have now earned your Wings...so take flight my Sister, and look onward for a blissful excursion into that Great Unknown, and find for yourself that Eternal Peace so that you can rest now...I will see you again one day!

God Speed and farewell Joan.

“Joan you will always be remembered by us "The Gorham Family" as a lovable, and sweet person. You came into our lives like a hurricane and blew everything up side down...lol, which is what we needed in order to set things really straight! You gave us an addition to our family, a Son named Malik, whom we all cherished, and love dearly, just as we do you. You brought many laughs and tears while you were here on Earth; the tears while bitter as they flowed would eventually, be realized in the end as Tears of Joy. You remember when we found out that we were both born 5 days apart in the same month, I was on July 14th and you was on July 19th, and how we just knew we had a whole lot in common, and really did in fact, we were both pretty girls you was rich deep chocolate, and I was creamy mellow caramel, hey, and we both thought we was something good "to eat" LOL.

You and I, we had a great bond that actually stood the test of time. I can remember, back in the day (in the 70's) when we would ride out and go uptown on 8th street, looking and scouting, trying to find us a "Chump" some fool to foot the bill and pay for what we might of wanted...lmao. I will never forget the time when we were coming off a mission, and had to stop at a public restroom to pay our water bill, I said Joan "ain't no damn toilet paper in here...and you said, you gotta just "shake it dry" you remember how hard we laughed? I still laugh at that today when I think about it!

Well one thing I can say is that you had a lot of heart girl, even down to when you were diagnosed with your illness and you told me about it, I saw COURAGE in the flesh emanating from the deepest virtue of your Being. You were the kind of person, that took what Life handed to you and you made the most from it. I can really say that you lived Life and that I know your "Ruby Splendor" was always in tact, and that you have now earned your Wings...so take flight my Sister, and look onward for a blissful excursion into that Great Unknown, and find for yourself that Eternal Peace so that you can rest now...I will see you again one day!

God Speed and farewell Joan.

“*Joan you were a ray of light on my life from the first day I met you. You shared wonderful stories good & sad of your background and took me into your heart. You were "AUNTIE" & I was your "NIECE". We bonded really easy. Two strong chocolate skinned women who loved our sons to pieces. Your love shined bright like a diamond and you will most definitely be missed by everyone who had a chance to know you!
