“ I didn't get to spend much time with my auntie, but I'm forever grateful for the moments we could share. My fondest memory is a time when I popped up unexpectedly to her house. She was so happy to see me. She shared some family pictures and memories. It was so heartfelt. Just recently I came across a letter she sent me almost 15 years ago. She always made sure to remind me of how much my father loved me. I know she's with him now. You will be missed auntie. ❤️ I love you!
