“ Joe,

*I'm glad God decided that we were destined to be much better friends than we ever managed to be as husband and wife!
I know the last three years were especially hard for you with your health concerns and the death of Joe Jr.
But I'm grateful that through it all, it somehow managed to open up a greater opportunity for me and your daughter to get the time to create a bond that will sustain us in your absence. You fought a good fight, and in the end you were tired and ready to go home, so rest well.*

*Love,
Pam and Damia*
