“ Growing up in the house of prayer Deacon Jackson and St. Jackson ran the honor roll/ scholarship recognition program. Even when I didn't always do my best they still gave me a little something to keep me motivated. Loved on the Johnson family like their own family and we are forever grateful.

“ Mr John (AKA) pop to my family and I, was a good man with a good heart. Ma and Pop lived next door to James and I for a couple of years and they became like family to us, when ever I cooked James would always take plates next door to them I remember the time my daughters car caught on fire and she had no way to complete her carrier route Pop said don't worry I can take her, he drove her to ever location and made sure she got all of her stops completed and wouldn't take a dime. We love and miss you Pop Your next door neighbors James and Valerie
