“ Shirley and Family: We were so very sorry to hear of Tommy's passing. So glad that Theonna, her husband and I got to see him and talk with him at our recent family reunion. Although we did not get to see him often, we always enjoyed talking with him whenever he came to town. He was always so pleasant and seemed to love and care so much for you, his children, and his grandchildren, as well as his sisters, brothers, nieces and nephews. We'll miss seeing him at family gatherings. You were truly blessed to have been able to spend more than 50 years with him. You'll certainly miss him, but the many precious and happy memories you have of him will sustain you. May God bless all of you, wrap his arms around you, wipe away your tears and assure you that Tommy is now "with him" in a wonderful, wonderful place. You won't have to worry about him; he's now in good hands. Take care, and God bless.
