“ Peace be with the family, friends, and associates of Deacon John S. Toole of The Shiloh Baptist Church of Washington, D.C. 20001:

When I think of Deacon Toole, I think of his quicksilver smile and his hearty laughter that was infectious and catching. I think about his radiant countenance that purveyed inspiration, benevolence, and trustworthiness for me. His words were measured, sincere and kindly. Mr. Toole's persona showed forth a person who was endowed with a loving and generous heart, a vibrant spirit, and a love for his Lord, Our Christ.

His passing marks another elder of the Vanguard that has now found his place in the Paradise that we all hope to inherit one day. Mr. Toole has now won the Final Earthly Race and now his reward is "all-of-eternity" to enjoy it with his beloved Marca and His Beloved Master, Our Christ....

In closing, again, may the Love of the Eternal Christ shine upon the family, friends, associates, members of the Shiloh Baptist Church of Washington, D.C. 20001, forever in knowing that Master Deacon John S. Toole has finally reached that "celestial shore of eternal love..."
