“ I always remember Uncle Johnny as being this smooth, tall, dark, handsome, quiet talking gentleman. He was always a man of few words, but heads would turn when he entered a room. He has such a presense about him. Boy could he dress. I will always remember his smirk of a smile and that twinkle in his eye. Although we never saw him much, he always left an impression. Gone, but he'll never be forgotten.

“ My fondest memory of Uncle Johnny was when he came to visit my mother and father on lowndes street in than his yellow cab with uncle joe to visit grandma we couldn't figure who those people were when they first got out of the cab. That is reallhy the first memory of him. He will be sadly miss by everyone here love always your niece

“ Lots of fond memories of when Uncle Johnny and Aunt Doris would come to Newport. My heart is saddened. He would always affectionally have a contest with Uncle Mingy to see who could throw me up in the air the highest... I will always remember the new "city girl" outfit him and Aunt Doris brought me.. my first mid drift top and shorts in hot pink with lots of ruffles across the top! I was probably about 7 but I'll never forget it!
Love from me and the family... your neice and cousin, Wanda
