“ To the Family of Wes Roberts,

Wes, our dear friend of over 40 years, we will love you and forever miss you.

Wes was a strong, kind, patient and generous man who had a vivid sense of humor. He would have a joke for you each time he spoke with you. He'd beat you laughing at his own jokes and sometime repeat it as if it deserved one more chuckle. We loved this about Wes. Even in his illness he would send jokes via e-mail.

Wes' love for family was very strong. We witnessed his love and responsibility early in his fatherhood and one of the moments that amazed us was how he could braid and care for Sondra and Karen's thick hair when they were very young. We remember the pride he took in his culinary experiments and how delicious his meals were. He was a wonderful cook!

Wes always stayed in touch although we didn't see him much, but this is the kind of friendship we had even after his move to D.C.

We deeply regret that we were not able to attend the service, but we want the family to know that although we are not there in body we truly honor Wes in spirit. Wes will be greatly missed and we will forever love and cherish his memory.

May the grace and love of Jesus Christ be a comfort to you all. We will keep the family lifted in daily prayer.

We Love You All,

Bill and LaVerne Pryor and Family##imported-begin##Bill and LaVerne Pror##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family. I would like to take this time and share with you a song by: Kevin Levar it's called "you are not alone" This song has helped me cope with the lost of my father.

When I heard the news I thought of you, and all you had to be goinâ?? thru. With a heavy heart I begin to pray, Father give them strength today. Now I know it wont be an easy road, but you donâ??t have to travel it alone. God vow to stand beside you, my family is prayin' for you. but lâ??m gonna let you go to you tell us who.

Chorus

We want you to know, you are not alone. We're still prayin' for you as if he were our very own. I can say I know how you feel, but our love for you is real. Just know you are not alone, you're not alone. Just know you are not alone.

Right now this may seem hard to believe, but one day you're gonna see the sun shine again, you're gonna smile again. I know that it hurts right now, and our hearts reachin' out. But I hope you can feel my love, flowinâ?? from all of us. We love you so much.

Itâ??s times like these we gotta we gotta get on fall knees. We gotta pray praise God that I am a believer. We gotta pray I know he can heal your needs. Jesus can heal you, No matter, no matter every where you go. If youâ??re looking for help, He will take it away. If you give Him your pain He'll take it away. Just give Him your pain. He'll take it away.

When I heard the news, I thought of you.##imported-begin##Maria V, Brooks ##imported-end##

“ Wes was a great friend of mine. Although I have known him for about 2 years, it feels as though I have known him for many more. When I came to work it was a sigh of relief to see that I was going to be working with him that day. Even though working in the pharmacy was stressful he would not let it get to him and would tell me not to do so either. He would tell the funniest jokes and I would run home to tell my friends and family the joke as if I was the person who came up with it. I will sure miss him. To the family, my blessings and sympathy go out to you. We love you and will most definitely miss you Wes!!###imported-begin###LaCresha Sellman###imported-end##

“ Dear Vivian,

May you find comfort in memories and strength in each other's love throughout this very difficult time. As you do the things that must be done, please remember to take care of yourself. It's important to find quiet time with God and let His peace guide you through this. I'll be thinking and praying for you and your family.
