“ If it was possible that John could see this..I'd say "Well John, it looks like you won this song"! "On occasion you were my musical debate brother & guy who always tried so hard to pry out all the funny secrets". To his family that he loved...although many are saddened we are grateful that his salvation assures he's Resting Well in the arms of our heavenly Father! Thanks for blessing this wicked earth with your kind words, support to all while maintaining such a gentle spirit! An awesome guy I could lovingly fuss at & still remain longtime respectable friends. You'll be greatly missed by those you've served with gladness!

“ My dear dear friend, oh how I will miss you so, I am so sad and heartbroken. Just found out you passed so I didn't get to attend the services. What I can say like so many others already knew is that you were a beautiful soul and those who knew you were oh so lucky to call you FRIEND as I have you sketched in my lasting memories until we meet again. You never let this world get to you and always looked at things as the glass half full. I will miss our inspirational talks John, your were truly one of a kind. ✨

“ John worked for my printing company for many years. He always had a kind word and a smile for anyone he came in contact with. I don't think in all those years I ever saw him in a bad mood. We all loved and enjoyed his love of our Redskins. God bless, this wonderful man. My prayers are with him. I feel as though I have another angel with me forever.
