“ To Sharon: You have my deepest sympathies for the loss of your dear husband. I am so happy that you guys met and married and shared long years of togetherness, love and happiness. May you find peace and strength to carry on as he would want you to do. He was a good man and was perfect for you - you were perfect for each other. Blessings that his spirit may rest in power and peace. I loved him for loving you.

Evelyn

To Johnny's family and friends: What a great and loving man. May you find peace to move forward as he would surely wish for you. May you find strength and relish his beautiful memories he contributed to your lives. Blessings and love.
