Thanking God for the blessing of Joseph (Joe) Allen Jones Jr. Born and raised in Washington, DC to the late Joseph and Ruby Jones on April 19, 1940. He graced our lives for 83 years and departed his earthly life on Sunday, December 17th.

He retired as an Accountant from National Education Association where he met his “Babycakes” – Norma Jean (Pudd) Lawrence Jones. She was the love of his life and everyone knew of his “Babycakes”. They just celebrated 55 years of marriage on December 7th. He held on to celebrate with her.

His other loves were Sun Tea, pig feet, gardening, dancing (hand dancing), and music (esp. his trombone).

He was a devout member of the Church of God, Gospel Spreading Church for over 45 years. He played for his church choir and all the baptisms at the Carter Barron as long as he was able. He worked there as the book keeper for almost 2 decades He loved his church. That was his extended family.

He was a hard working man, with a contagious smile and boisterous laugh.

He loved to laugh, his old stories, history – 12th Street and Barry Farms – Luzon Ave and Tewksbury Street. He was dedicated to his family, everything he did was for them. Our kids loved him, especially PopPop’s lap. Where he would bounce them until their hearts content.

He had 4 children Joseph (Robin), Tony, Julienne (Anthony) and Brian (Sharri). He has 5 grandchildren – Antynese, Darrell (Kiara), Jordin, Shar, and Bree. Six great-grandchildren – Makiya , Jaiden, Lyric, Sean, Chloe, and Julian. His godchildren are Mia (Alonzo) and David (Kisha). His brother Kenneth Jones. His “other brother”, best friend since junior high is Charles Mayes. Let us not forget his loving in-laws Joyce Loritts, Rochus (Celeste) Lawrence, Glenda (Jerry) Hill, and Douglas (Robin) Lawrence.

He was proceeded in death by Radeyah (Vanta) Hamid, and Maurice Jones.

Joe was also loved by countless cousins, nephews, nieces, family, and friends.
