“ Mr. Bingham was a fine man and a good neighbor. His yard was always so beautiful and well-cared for, and a lot of love and imagination went into it. He was devoted to the DC Youth Orchestra, and I remember well his delight at going on tour to Europe with it. I tried to take care of his fish, but I wasn't very good at it.

Gus Snyder Nancy's first husband was a great friend of Mr. Bingham's. Joe was always there for us in crises, and he was a bulwark when there was any trouble in the neighborhood. He always went the extra mile. One of Nancy's most vivid memories among many: Gus had to go out one evening, and Nancy and little Carl about 3 were home alone. Carl fell and cut his forehead. I called Mr. Bingham, and he took us to the hospital so I wouldn't have to drive when I was upset. He was like that.

Al, Nancy, and Carl send our heartfelt condolences and prayers to Minnie, Sharon, Earl, and all the family.##imported-begin##Al and Nancy Levine##imported-end##

“ I only knew of Mr. and Mrs. Bingham through Ernest Robinson. They seemed like a grand couple, and Mr. Bingham like a very nice man: thoughtful, generous, funny, hard-working, kind. And their marriage of 52 years was as one many of us could strive to have.

My prayers go to Mrs. Bingham his beloved Minnie and their daughter.
