RIDE THE WINGS TO HEAVEN, RIP

Constance Allen - January 05, 2012 at 01:10 PM

“ I know words aren't much good at time like this, but I hope they offer some comfort. I met Joyce because she is my sister's mother-in-law. But in the time I've known her she was always a gracious hostess and a genuinely kind person. She was an especially good grandmother to her grandchildren. She was always available for babysitting, daycare and always so generous at Christmas and birthdays. We will all miss her dearly.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ To the Family: I am truly sorry about your family's loss, and I want to offer my condolences. Even though death is a part of life, its not always easy for us to handle and we may sometimes find it difficult to endure, but Gods Word the Bible gives us heartwarming comfort during our times of distress, one scripture in particular that gives much needed comfort is found at Revelation 21:3,4 which in part reads: "And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Your family will be in my prayers, my sincere condolences.
