“ Vernon, Jonathan ... your Richmond family was so very sorry to hear of our sister-in-law Juanita's passing. We know that she was loved by many. You both took great care of your mother during her illness. I remember Aunt Avis telling me how much she enjoyed her weekly conversations over the telephone with your mother. Once we met Juanita, we fell in love with her too! We also enjoyed the many conversations. She had an interesting and full life. I knew that she loved to travel. Now she is on a new journey where the road will intersect. There in the middle of the road will be her husband Vernon. He will smile, take her in his arms, and whisper in her ear ... “welcome! to your new home”.

“ Aunt Juanita loved her family. After my mother, Gloria, Aunt Shirley and Uncle Alfred passed, Aunt Juanita always checked on her nieces and nephews. I will miss our conversations. Vernon and Jonathan, your mother loved you dearly and was so very proud of both of you. With much love- your cousin, Karen
