

June D Bradshaw

June 3, 1928 - December 5, 2020

June was born on June 3, 1928. She married the late Buffalo Soldier, Raymond Bradshaw. From this union Joyce Anita was born. In 1949, her son Raymond was born. The marriage ended in divorce.

In 1957, June attended the Poro Beauty College, where she earned an Associate Degree in Cosmetology and Barbering. In 1967, she opened June's Salon of Beauty and worked until her failing health forced her to retire. She was known for her hard press and croquignole curls. She later married Philip Bush. They loved boating and fishing. She was a good cook and could bake award winning cakes. Philip passed away in 2003. With her health still declining, she developed Alzheimer's and after a massive heart attack she moved in with her daughter, Joyce. Joyce and her son Sean provided loving care and patience and vowed she would never go into a nursing home. Sean and Marcelina went to school and took the home health aide course. This was a great help to Joyce(who is sick) and her mother. June Delores Miller Bradshaw(Bush) went home to be with the lord on the morning of December 5, 2020 in Washington, DC after a gradual decline in her health, she moved in with her daughter; Joyce until her death. She was surrounded and supported by loving family members during the last days of her life. June was preceded in death by her father, Roscoe C. Miller and mother, Margaret E. Powell, both of Raleigh, North Carolina; sixteen siblings, husband, Philip Bush, daughter-in-law, Luada and grandson, Raymond, III. June is survived by her devoted daughter; Joyce, her son Raymond, granddaughters, Yvette Street, Ina Christian, Camille Campbell, grandsons; Sean Christine and Ryan Bradshaw. greatgrandchildren; Parise' Street, Marcelino Street, Savian Street, Andre' Campbell, Cordell Campbell, Johnny Christian, Ian Christian, Imani Christian, Imyia Christian, Irie Christian and India Christian; 1 great-great grandchild; Remi-Rivera Campbell.

“ Hello Joyce, this Evelyn. I remember Mom Bradshaw. I just coming to this post. She did my hair since I was a little girl through all my teenage years. She gave me pointers when I went to Cosmetology School.

My condolences to you and the family, May God continue to give you all peace and comfort. I was just talking about you to my sister about this gospel song, you taught us at Trinidad Baptist Church. I was singing the song to my young sister. I want to talk to you. God have a way of doing things. Sister and I am on road, we said just Google her name. We talked about Mom Bradshaw doing my hair, and how you wanted me to lead songs in church. I was having a hard time with word Father, not knowing I had hearing & speech problems. I want to sing this song in worship that you wrote. I am a Licensed Ordained Minister of the Gospel, and Praise & Worship Leader/Instructor. I wrote a book on Amazon Dance Unto God's Glory! Show, Prove, Move! Please give me call at 202-577-2386.

“ Hi Joyce,
I heard about mama June and I know it's difficult for you and the girls right now. I'll always remember the Queen hairstylist of N.E. Washington. The service was beautiful and so was she. You all take care of yourself, God Bless you and the family. ~Love, Valerie

“ Love you Aunt June,

You always made us the best luncheons to take to school. I remember how you wrapped the sandwiches in wax paper. To this day, I cannot buy wax paper without thinking of you.

I remember how you pressed my hair for Easter Service, while dangling that cigarette in the corner of your mouth. I remember when you set up the hair chair in the basement of your home. I was just a small girl and you would comb and detangle my hair, telling me I was tender headed.

You are missed.

Rest in Peace

I never got the chance to meet you personally Mrs. Bradshaw but I do know your daughter, Joyce, who is a fine representative of great character that you raised. Like mother like daughter. Your love forever lives in those that knew you and always deeply in your children's hearts. May you rest in peace....Debbie Cowell
