“ Condolences to the Minter-Izzard family. Karen and I were roommates in college and there wasn't a weekend that didn't go by that she didn't hesitate to get back to DC. She would practice her songs for the choir and made sure she made it home to sing. At the time I didn't know what church she attended until I joined the same church years later. She was a gentle spirit, quick wit and, a good sense of humor and a laugh that would have you laughing right along with her. She will truly be missed. RIH Karen.

Praying for the Minter-Izzard. Our love and thoughts are with you. Missing Karen, lovely smile and her wonderful sense of humor. The last time she was at church, we were laughing at how she call her mom the Diva! Holding on to those wonderful memories.
