“ TO the Jennings Family:

I know this is a hard time but Karl was above and beyond the King of goodness. We all have lose such a good friend, brother and son. But with the strength and faith in GOD we all will make it through this time.

Karl left me with so many memories. He was beyond a friend to me and my son's. He often mention having children but he always accepted other children as his own. My son's have great memories of him and he will be missed.
