Obituary

Kathleen Leonie Palmer-Hinds was born on October 28, 1946 to Muriel Anderson and Stanley Palmer.

Kathleen was raised by her aunt, Isabella Cunningham, a devout Christian (now deceased), from whom she hinged her own principles.

Kathleen attended Lower Buxton All Age School in Saint Ann, Jamaica.

She was employed in the Tourism industry for most of her working years.

Kathleen quietly and peacefully departed our company to attend a scheduled meeting with her Creator on the morning of March 9, 2011. Finding it extremely bewildering are her children, Patricia and Everoy; grandchildren, Stacey, Sheldon, Kevar, Jeremy and Jade; a large extended family and many friends especially, the McFarlane and Prince families. Kathleen's sunset has left behind her mother, four brothers and three sisters.

Acknowledgements

The family acknowledges the many friends who shared their gifts of love, their prayers and their comforting thoughts that eased our saddened and troubled hearts. We ask your continued prayers.

At the Graveside:

We shall have a grand time up in heaven

There is a land that is fairer than day

Meet me by the river

What a glory that would be

Someday I will go where Jesus is

Across the bridge there will be no sorrow

God be with you till we meet again
