“ Please accept my deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. Death is a very tough pain to endure as I have also lost many. The Holy Bible has helped my family to look to Almighty God for comfort. Isaiah 25:8 give us a promise that death will be removed from our lives forever. May you continue to experience peace from the scriptures.##imported-begin##Mrs. Lewis##imported-end##

“ Dear Edith,

There are no words that can take away your sorrow for your lost or to take away your pain but we would like to say that we are here in spirit for you and with you. We would also like to say that even though it hurts now, your joy will come in the morning as long as you hold onto God's unchanging hand. He will take care of you through all that you are going through and he will take care of your precious gift. He only loaned Keisha to you and the family for while and now it is time for her to return to him to her home in glory. You will have good days and you will have down days but just remember that your Heavenly Father is looking after you and the family and even though weeping may endure for the night, joy comes in the morning. We here in the country are thinking about you and the family and we will be here for you as long as you need. You all are in our prayers and heart.##imported-begin##The Payne Family##imported-end##
