“ Whenever you needed him Keith was a call away, it could be for anything, advice, a laugh, turn up, a ride, lifting something heavy "tho he might complain a little bit about that" it didn't matter! Gonna miss those texts complaining about the Dallas cowboys and those random texts when you were just checking on me!! Had some great times made some memories that I'll cherish forever Cuz!! Appreciate you and gonna miss ya Keith

“ Mr James and Ms Lisa, you raised an amazing son. I met Keith, about 15yrs ago, thru my husband and he became a brother to me. He LOVED his family and so proud of his daughter, Tierra. He was always fun to be around. He said to me "everybody love Keith" and that is so true. He will be truly missed. May God strengthen you and keep you. Rest in Peace Keith💖

“ Keith was like a son to me. Keith was always kind, helpful and would keep you laughing. He never gave his parents any problems - James and Lisa instill good morals in him. He love my cakes and I truly believe that I'll see Keith again in "Heaven" and we'll laugh and eat cake again. James and Lisa GOD always accept the best and as we know he's one of the best!!
