“ The family of John and Janie Caldwell wish to sincerely express their deepest sympathy upon the loss of your loved one. As we have rejoiced with you in good time, we also grieve with you in your time of sorrow. May God ease your pain and welcome Keith into His Kingdom.

John Janie Caldwell - December 06, 2010 at 03:58 PM

“ Keith was like a foster son to me. He loved my cooking and I loved to feed him. He was always so grateful. I will miss seeing him.

“ I have had the opportunity to meet Keith but a loss to death is always sad moment in the family and friends life, but rest assure that it doesn't have to be hopeless. I say that because God, through his word the Bible. In the book of Acts it shows and realistic hope, it states how, " they'll be a resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous." so a resurrection in the future.
