“ Kendrick, please accept my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your father. Know that I am praying for you and your family. Having lost my father several years ago I know that it feels like the pain will never go away. Please know that one day soon you will wake up and think of your father and laugh rather than cry, it is then that you will realize that he will never leave and will always be with you in spirit. Again my sincere condolences to you and your loved ones during this difficult time.

God Bless,

By Barbara Lois Fullard
Colleague and Friend

*A Union leader and an industrial arts designer,
At Johnson Junior High, there was certainly none finer.*

*A truly gifted dreamer, always with a master plan,
To children and colleagues, he was a gentle man.*

*A prolific speaker at group meetings and such,
We all relied on him to guide us in a crunch.*

*With the One-Fund Drive, he showed us how to care.
Hospitality was another group for which he had a flair.*

*With numbers and facts his approach was pristine,
Calculating with precision at any given scene.*

*He meandered in a room with that towering stance.
He meant serious business. You knew it at first glance.*

*Within his calm demeanor was a subtle smile, a wink.
He made you stop and listen, contemplate, and think.*

*A family man was he, with a son he'd often guide.
He spoke of family often with smiles and loving pride.*

*He was sharp and quick-witted, as shrewd as an ebony fox.
You were our loyal and dear friend. We loved you, Kenneth Cox.*

*My condolences to the family and friends.##imported-
