“ May you find strength in your faith in God, comfort in His love, and peace in knowing that Kenneth's suffering has ended.

In times like this you may feel sad, but it's part of God's plan that you remember, rejoice, and be thankful for the memories, the good times and the lessons learned.

Trust in the God, lean on His everlasting arms, and please know that you have friends who care.

God bless you. Eva M. Williams
