“ To Kenny's family, Please know how sorry we are to hear of his passing. We first met him when he came to help out during a snowstorm a few years ago, and then again with last one that turned out to be a full blown blizzard! My husband was working through the storm in DC and couldn't make it home. Once he started working it took everything we had to make Kenny come out of the cold, get something hot to drink, and rest up and dry off. Finally we convinced him to stay over as the storm showed no signs of letting up! My son and daughter-in-law were here due to a power failure. Rob tried to help but he had injured his back on the job (later we found out it was broken in two places). The next morning we had fried baloney and scrambled eggs, lots of laughs and great conversation before he was off again. He was very proud of his family and spoke lovingly of them. He eventually called his daughter to pick him up. (Sorry I didn't get to meet you.) Please know he will be missed. Not just by family, but by anyone that ever met him. He was a genuinely wonderful man with a heart of gold and I was proud to know him if only for a few years. The Wallace Family, White Plains, Md.
