“ Yatti,

It is almost a year since you have passed and you won't believe how your death made me realized nothing is promised. You were one of the funniest people I eva met. The only girl who could dance in the middle of the street to no music. Your loud colors and crazy ways will definitely be missed. You had that personality thats so rare, that can make somebodies whole day. I remember wen ii first met you and you had me dying laughing that hol nite and ii knew we was gon be friends for a lifetime, but tragically and unfairly our friendship was cut short. Regardless I kno you still here everytime I listen to my lil wayne cd that reminds me of you & that nite around Cashae way. Trust me wen I say you will never be forgotten. I cant wait to have a daughter and name her after you. I hope she acts just like you. Love and miss you!!!##imported-begin##Brytne##imported-end##

“ Yatti

You are now with the ones who can truly love you unconditionally and forever, there is no more pain and you will live forever in the hearts of the ones whom truly loved you, be at peace my sista and know that you are in a better place then where you were. Your daddy will miss you beyond words and he will never get over losing you at such a young age to such a useless act of violence. Watch over us all and my God rest your soul.

“ Kenyatta not a day has past that I havenâ??t thought about you. It hurts me so much to know that no matter what I do or how much I pray I will never physically see you again. I keep saying what I would do differently and only if I could go back in time but that just wonâ??t change anything. I just want to thank you for helping me come out of my shell and for also blessing my life with your spirit. Iâ??m not sure what I will do next but we have to change our community, this epidemic of senseless killings is ending the lives of beautiful people like Kenyatta and if we donâ??t care no one will. Please stop the violence Love you Yatti!!!!!!!!!!!!!! You will never be forgotten##imported-begin##Jasmin Phillips##imported-end##

“ *Kenyatta,
I just want to say I really wish I could've seen you sooner before this happened. When I was told I really couldn't believe what I was hearing. It didn't really start to sink in until I read the news article. It was then while I was reading, that I started to cry and it felt like my heart sank. You were one of the best friends I've ever had and we've definitely had some good times together. like the day we were in Mrs. Springer's class dying laughing at Spongebob and his toothbrush The last time I saw you was in the hallway during Spartan Hr at Laurel almost two years ago, and it was only for a few minutes too. smh You WILL be dearly missed. Trust and Believe. R.I.P. Pretty Lady.##imported-begin##Kara McMillan##imported-end##*

“ To the Family of Kenyatta - I was deeply saddened to hear of her sudden passing. My prayers & heartfelt sympathy are extended to you. The last opportunity I had to see Kenyatta was her visit several months ago at R.A.P. Int'l Ministries. I can still visualize as she allowed me to walk with her to the altar for prayer. I remember telling her that I would be praying for her and she quietly thanked me. May the Lord God sustain you through this difficult time & comfort you in His loving arms.##imported-begin##Phyllis Williams##imported-end##
