“ I was sitting in my room thinking about you and something told me to Google you. I am screaming laughing that this of all places is where I could find you. I am humbled by all the beautiful words shared by all. I'm also remembering when we met up in Annapolis and sat on the dock of the bay then went by granddads house, and visited with family. I'm reminded of how we went to the cemetery and couldn't find granddads headstone only to realize we were standing on it. Lol. I am blessed to have known you, love you, and call you my cousin and confidant. I will miss you forever....

*Love your sister-cousin and friend,
Charrisse*

“ To the Family and friends of MY BOY... Jeff, I miss him and think about him often. I smile everytime I look at RG III w the Redskins and think about how many times Kevin would have called by now me asking..." Did ya see our boy RG 3 today?". My boy Jeff LOVED his Redskins, and never left an opportunity to remind me of that. And politics...that was my "go to" guy. I wasn't makin a move till I ran it by Jeff. Few will know how significant he was in my life and how much I miss him. Rest in Peace Brother!, your boy in California....Jerome Stanley.

“ During the 1988 Winter Olympics, Kevin and I watched as Debi Thomas and Katarina Witt each skated to Bizet's "Carmen." We kept willing Debi to skate better and I thought at one point that Kevin would reach through the television to help her out. Debi placed third, a huge disappointment, and we sat in silence for about an hour. When we began talking again, we fantasized about black leaders, specifically, a Black President. Wow, who knew... Rest in peace, my friend. The times we shared will live forever in my heart. DWPJ

“ I am saddened to read about the passing of Rev. Kevin. My memories of him are from long before he became a reverend, but was an active member at Ebenezer. My condolences to his family.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one in death. May the heartfelt thoughts and loving memories bring comfort and peace to you.

At John 11:25, Jesus says, "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."

The Bible gives us hope in the resurrection and what a joyous time that will be to see your loved one come to life again. Wouldn't you like to be there?

“ The Reverend Kevin Jefferson was my friend, colleague, mentor, and inspiration. He is remembered as one of a few leaders that was capable of mastering the art of politics and faith at the highest levels of government and The Church. My heart aches, but my spirit is filled with joy filled with the memories of my dear ol' friend. I love you, man...

“ Reverend Kevin Jefferson has always been in my mind a spiritual - christian missionary and a political missionary. He has produced a very powerful legacy on both missionary fronts. You are forever loved and cherished Reverend Jefferson and we will continue to pray for blessings unto your immediate beautiful family. We love you, Reverend Jefferson.

“ Kevin was a son of Ebenezer AME Church in Fort Washington, Maryland. I met Kevin when he joined the Prison Ministry.at Ebenezer. I will always remember his smile and excitement when he brought the Word to the young inmates. He became one of their favorites. Rest on little Bro. You fought a good fight.

“ Dear Sis. Reneesha,

I pray your stregnth in the Lord during this time of bereavement. Rev. Jefferson was a wonderful person and I was glad to know him and consider him a friend. I pray also for the family and know that I am only a phone call away if you need me.

“ We met at Bowie State and coordinate many political ventures together including the NAACP. Over the years, he'd call and say Doc, what so you think? After school, in 1984 he spoke at my very first graduation for my students. I am grateful to Him for ording the steps we shared. Bless you Raneesha and family. Victor

“ My cousin, my friend and advisor. Kevin , I will never forget what you did for me and my four children when we came to the District of Columbia. Your beautiful smile and your debonair swag encouraged us that we could do and be anything we wanted to be as long as we put God first and family next. We love you Kevin and we will miss you. But God love you best. Jean Alexander and Family

“ Kevin gave me a statue in college that read "It is good to have a friend like you" that I still have today. I dont think he realized I felt the same way. He was kind, respectful, and full of integrity. You could be yourself around him. He was full of love and I was not surprised he became a Pastor. What a great representative of God he was. RIP Kevin!
