“ Kevin was an honest, sweet, humorous and compassionate person.. He gave us joy and laughter with his funny jokes. His humor was like medicine. Thank you Carmalita for the loving care you gave him during his illness. You created surroundings making his life normal as Humanly possible.

Love, Kevin Sister Diane L. Barnaby

“ My Dearest kev, you left me broken.still trying to understand why you left without saying goodbye.you promised you will be there on Sunday but it was not to be. God needed you more than I did so he took you home. I would alway remember November 2002 when you say me for the first time an your eyes lit up. We were inseparable from that point on. Taking trip, going to the beach, partying to soca music like you were a trini, eating all the good caribbean food,even planning to move to trinidad after you retired. Taking care of you to the end was all I could ask for.listening to your jokes, being cursed out when you can have your way. Then always sweetening me up with how much you love an appreciate me.made it all worth while. I will alway "LOVE YOU" kevin L. Johnson!

Your truly Cami.
