

Komoka L.G. Sizer

May 6, 1913 - January 11, 2011

Mrs. Komoka G. Sizer, formerly of Havana, Cuba, was the wife of the late Henry K. Sizer for 47 years.

She is the daughter of the late Petro and Osceola L. Golindo-Peralda and the granddaughter of the late George W. Taylor, former jeweler of Washington, DC and Lillian Keys of Havana, Cuba.

Mrs. Sizer graduated from St. Augustine School and St. Frances Academy in Baltimore. After high school she attended M.M. Washington School of Nursing. She continued her education by attending Just School of Advanced Practical Nursing and Cortez Peters Business School.

Mrs. Sizer was a member of St. Augustine Sodality, Alumni Association of St. Augustine and Oblate Sister of Providence.

She is survived by three nieces, Clotilda E. Scott, Mingo Lee Watkins: two nephews, Torre Watkins (and Wife), Ricardo Watkins (and wife); five great nieces and a host of other relatives.

Poem

For the Christian the day of death is the day of Victory. On that day she receives her crown, her palm of victory. Having lived the life of grace on earth. She reaches in Heaven the fullness and perfection of that life, union with God in the beatific vision.
