“ My fondest memories of my friend Lonnie was during our University years at Howard! We studied Chemical Engineering together and enjoyed so many moments at school and in DC both during after graduation! Lonnie welcomed me into network of family and friends in SE DC and Maryland! I'm sadden to just learn my friend has passed but I know he is in better place now! May you Rest In Peace Edward Hunter

“ To the Wharton family I offer my heartfelt condolences on the loss of Ray (husband, father and grandfather). I have many fond memories of Ray. We worked together many years at NRC and had many wonderful conversations.

We were also fellow Washingtonians and Howard Engineering students.

I know that God's holy spirit will be a source of comfort to you at this time and for years come. I hope these words bring you joy as well.

We (NRC family) we're proud of him.

*Sincerely,
Herman L. Graves, III*

“ I enjoyed working with and being around Ray. I have wonderful memories of talking to Ray and his mother. Ray was very professional at work, but he knew when humor was appropriate and that made Ray a very special person. My condolences to his family and God Bless.

“ Ray was one of my best friends at work and my lunch buddy. He was more like an uncle to me who always had a lifetime of experiences to share as advice. I could always tell, from the stories, that he was super proud of his sons, loved his wife dearly, and was crazy about his grandbaby. He was always there to be a listening ear when I dealt with the passing of my mother and father. I am really going to miss his laugh the most...and the way he was always quick to remind me..."Hey, I'm from South East."

Miss you, my friend!

“ I worked with Ray at the NRC and always enjoyed his wit and great sense of humor! When situations would get tense he was always there to lighten the mood. At the same time, he was very capable technically, and when he spoke I always listened. I miss him here greatly since he left the agency. Now he has truly left us for greener pastures! My condolences to his family. I am keeping you in my prayers that God's peace will surround you in this challenging time.

“ Ray was always smiling. That is what I will remember most about him. No matter what headaches we may have been dealing with at the NRC, Ray would still have an upbeat, positive attitude. And when I needed advice for my Dad's triple bypass surgery, Ray was a re-assuring, knowledgeable friend who put my mind at ease. Forever grateful for the time and experiences I shared with Ray. My deepest sympathy to his family and friends.

“ My condolences to Ray's family. I have very good memories from Ray. We worked together in the same branch for some time. I had the opportunity of working with him on several projects and learning from his vast experience about the organization. I was also his informal IT support. I learned that he was a fan of Washington D.C.'s football team. I remember that I was talking to him one day and told him that I met someone, while on vacation, that was from D.C., but the person was a Steelers fan. Ray told me that the guy might have hit his head when he was a child. I just laugh. Rest in peace Ray.

“ I have many fond memories of working with Ray at NRC for many years. He was a true professional and a real gentleman. We used to laugh over our first difficult assignment together on a committee that had a very contentious member that Ray was constantly trying to get to agree with the rest of us. Rest well, my friend.
