“ To my Uncle Lamont:
I just want to say THANK YOU! Thank you for always being the gentle bear, the one with the continuous smile, always encouraging and loving. You were the oldest and my mother was the baby and you always wore your big brother hat! I still hear your voice in my head, "Heeeey slim!" Remembering taking rides in your big conversion van with the couch and the TV, we used to be pressed to sit in your van! Lol. You were always full of life and love and that's what I will always remember. I saw you in your moments when life got the best but you still gave me a grunt when I said, "get up and let's get some Bombay!" LOL. 😂 Thank you for being one of the strong male figures in my life! Today, you would have taken another lap around the Sun ☀️ but Sunday you just got too tired. The fight was over. 😞 I'm glad to know that the pain is gone, but the the pain of your absence is still too new.💔 I love you Uncle Lamont! ❤️ no more pain, no more worries, just rest for now and I will see you in Paradise 🕊️📧
