

Languel B. Jones

June 11, 1962 - February 1, 2020

Languel B. Jones also known as 'Junebug' or 'Lang'; was born on June 11, 1962 in Washington, D.C. He was the only son of the late Languel 'LB' and Carlotta 'CeCe' Jones. Junebug was a member of the Kelsey Temple Church of God in Christ where he accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age. Junebug received his education with the DC public school system; where he attended Garfield Elementary, Brown Jr. High, and received his High School Diploma at Woodson High. He also attended Duke Ellington School of the Arts. He continued his higher education at Ohio State University then went on to University of District of Columbia; where he worked for many years in the bookstore. He went on to further his career working for the Washington Post until he started his employment with TSA, Homeland Security; where he was the model employee until his transition. Junebug was a laid-back, easy going, gentle man who had a passion for bowling and thrift-store shopping in his spare time. Some of his favorite sayings were; "Can't we all just get along", "Yeah, yeah, that's right, that's right", "For real, for real?". He would always end an affectionate conversation with, "I love you more!" Junebug had such a hearty laugh; it would lead you to laughing. Junebug closed his eyes for sweet sleep on Saturday, February 1, 2020. He leaves to cherish these memories a wife, Loren Jones (no children were born of this union); an older sister, Gwendolyn "Gwenn" Jones; a younger sister, Helene 'Lena' Brooks (Lamont); an aunt, Helen Summers; an uncle, Lorenzo 'Rinnie' Jones; nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of other family, coworkers and friends.
