“ Condolences first from Mrs. Ruby Pearson who for sometimes had asked if I remembered where Miss Lassie was....I did make contact on Facebook with one of her nieces. Today I called Mrs. Pearson and she gave me the sad news. So condolences from my family also Shepperson from Poplar Mount. I remember her playing piano on occasion at Poplar Mount. then I saw the note from her niece Mavis...May you be comforted remembering the good times with her.

“ I remember when my daughter Lyric returned from New Orleans and traveled with me to see Aunt Lassie. Lyric had been in shock due to the fact that she was away from me for three months. When she returned she would not speak. Aunt Lassie kept her for 1 hour and when I returned, she was talking, "loudly." I asked Aunt Lassie what she said to her. She said in a loud voice, "TALK!" Lyric hasn't shut her mouth since!
