The Boggs- Barber Family was not aware and we grieve deeply for the loss of Mrs. Greene. Our families had known each other at least 75 years if not more. My grandmother Dorothy Mae Anderson and Laura Greene owned a beauty shop together in the 1950s and until my grandmother's untimely death in 1963. Afterwards she and her late husband were surrogate parents to my mom Janice and grandparents to me and my siblings. This is sad news but we're heartened to hear how long Laura lived. Surely she now resides with the angels.
