“ I will always remember Mr. Offutt for his kindness to our family over the years. He and my mother shared a birthday week and enjoyed sharing that fact. This year, I bought him a birthday balloon, which his wife says is still up in his room.

He loved the Lord and over the years we had several conversations about church, ministers and what people were doing that we felt the Lord would or would not like. We both had official duties in our respective churches and talked about them when we could. I will miss those conversations but I am glad we had them.

Mrs. Offutt, I know this is hard for you and your family and that weeping is part of the grieving process. The Bible says that joy comes in the morning. I know when daylight comes, you are joyful because you were married to a kind and gentle soul and that is truly a blessing from God.

Sincerely,
R. Beatty

“ Larue was my cousin, but was more like a big brother to me because we were raised in the same household. He was 12 years old when I was born & he treated me like his precious little sister. I will never forget the loving relationship we have always had. Be at peace my brother until we meet again!!! Love, Diane 🙏🙏🙏

“ To the Offutt family, we want to extend our condolence to you. Larue has been a blessing to all he has ever greeted and met. And to see him being so dapper and sharp even on regular days. We will miss your smile and spirit but these memories in our hearts and minds will last forever. May God comfort you and keep you during this time. You have us available if you need a shoulder, an ear or anything else. Our prayers will continue for you!

“ We can't begin to imagine what you are feeling, but please let us share our heartfelt condolences. In just a little while all of the pain and sorrow that we feel from the death of our love ones will cease and be replaced with joy, because the former things have passed away. Thinking of you all.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family in this time of sorrow. Continue to rely on God and know that he hears your prayers, because cares for you. Truly sorry for your loss.

Evans family - September 30, 2020 at 05:08 AM

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

Our wonderful cousin Larue grew up in house with us on Martin's Lane in Rockville, Maryland. We shared the same grandmother, Dora Mae Rogers. We were all very close. I miss him but so glad he has transitioned and no more pain and suffering but resting with our Lord. Rest now Larue and we will stay close to Leonie who we love much. God Bless. Sister (Jane Battle).
