“ Dear Kennedy Family,

I am so sorry to hear of the loss. I know that your will miss her very much, however, you have many memories of the good times your family shared together. I know that she is rejoicing with the angels in heaven and so you should rejoice. No more tears to be shed, as Leonella would have you draw closer to God for His Love, His strength, His guidance, and His peace that is found in His Word. Enjoy and build on the legacy that she and her Aunt have left for you: a relationship with God, love, forgiveness, and helping others. Even though it has been several years since I moved from Fairmont Street I will never forget the times I shared with Leonella talking and working with her in the Prison Ministry. You are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Nancy Gaines##imported-end##
