“ Dear Edna, Ari, Daryl, and Sabra - I deeply regret I could not be there in person with all of you during Roy's Memorial Homegoing services, but I was indeed there in spirit. I know, and feel confident that all of you know God will continue to strengthen you during this most difficult transition in your lives. We must all remember the fun, happy, joyous times with Roy as he would want us all to during these difficult days to help ease the sense of loss. I will continue to pray for peace of mind for all of you. We have all lost a wonderful family member and just GREAT guy. Our entire family will miss him. With love - Cousin Sheree

“ *The Fitzgerald Family,
Both Jason and I share warm and loving thoughts of your family. I am most thankful for the special times shared with your father and mother during our visits to their home. His loving presence will always be remembered.
May the Peace of the Lord be with you all.
Love,

“ I wish to express my sincere condolence at the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one and a parent can be difficult thing to cope with. The presence of them, their smiles, the laughs, the support they gave are all things to cherish but for the moment they will no longer be enjoyed. Certainly take advantage of the support family and friends provide at this time. It's there way of showing they care. God also cares too! 1Peter 5:6,7 He invites us to throw all our anxiety upon him. Jesus gives us hope for he cares so much for us that he was willing to give his life so that we could have a chance at everlasting life in the near future. John 3:16 This was well in harmony with his father's will for mankind. While here on earth he demonstrated his power over death by resurrecting ones from the dead. Luke 7:12-16, John 11:11-44 He further promises that there will be a resurrection for those who fall asleep in death. John 5:28,29 Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will here his voice and come out to a resurrection to life. Our heavenly father has given his word that this will be done! Further death will be done away with soon for Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Yes death will not continue to zap our joy in life. 1 Corinthians 15:26 If it be the will of God you may see your love one again. This hope the bible assures us is a true hope for the future when the righteous will possess the earth and all wickedness will be done away with. Until then may the God of comfort be with you during this difficult situation. May provide you with his peace that will control you heart and mental powers by means of his dear son Jesus Christ. ##imported-begin##Garrick's Messages##imported-end##

“ Hello all, you know you are in our prayers and though we can not be there in body you know we are there in spirit today and always. You know I would want to comfort and make it not hurt so bad but only God can make us happy when we are so sad - so let Him be there for you at this time of despair. Remember...

To Those I Love

*When I am gone, release me, let me go --
For I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy we had so many years.
I gave you my love,
you can only guess,
how much you gave me in happiness.
But now it's time I traveled on alone. So, grieve if grieve you must, Then let your heart be comforted by trust I won't be far away, for life goes on --
So bless the memories within your heart.
If you need me, call and I will come, though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
and if you listen with your heart you will hear,
All of My Love around you soft and dear.
And when you must come this way alone I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome Home". Amen.
In Jesus,*

“ Dear Mrs Fitzgerald, Daryl, Stephanie, and Family,

We were deeply saddened upon hearing of the loss of the patriarch of your family. Our family was and continues to be blessed by the love, support, and care you all demonstrated toward him and each other.

We rejoice and are comforted in knowing that, because of our Savior, you will all see each other again and that Mr. Fitzgerald has entered into his eternal rest. 2 Corinthians 4:16-15:8.

As always, if there's anything we can do to support you during this time, please let us know.

Lovingly and sorrowfully submitted,

“ *Mrs. Edna and family and Daryl and Stephanie and family:
We cannot imagine how you all are feeling at the homegoing of your dear husband and father. We know you loved him tremendously by way of your love and care you consistently exemplified. We know you have the blessed assurance that he is with the Lord and we also know it still hurts; so please be assured that we are praying for you that as you grieve you will be comforted by the Holy Spirit, as He promises.
I Peter 5:7
Prayerfully yours,
