“ Lettie Ann Brown Born August 28, 1955 as a triplets. The same day Emmitt Till was was kill. Lettie always said she couldn't find a record of triplets Birth in Dorchester County. Lettie was a family lady. Every event that happen she was there taking pictures. Lettie left many memories that will never be forgotten. It was the Devine spirit that took my sister and I to witness to see how peaceful she was when she crossover. I leave with you that all things are possible when you believe that God is in control. Lettie empty vessel is left. She have a new home, she have earned her crown glory hallelujah! Big sister D

“ Lettie will be greatly missed. She was a dear friend who was a bright light in this world. She loved to laugh and had a nickname for everyone she met. Our days working at CPEP were tough but we managed because Lettie always brought out the best in every situation. She will always be remembered for her wonderful spirit!
