“ *Greg, Jetta, & Andre;
I know that words can not remove the pain of losing a loved one. Just know that I am praying for God to comfort you at this time. Your loved one will live on through the memories that you share with others. Love is stronger than the grave. Rest assured that your mother/grandmother's presence will always be with you.

“ Greg and family,

We did not know Lillie but we can see through her children how we missed not knowing her. We also see through your strong faith how she mentored you in your spiritual foundations and that she was a wonderful loving and spiritual mother who will be desperately missed. I also see through that same "Rock-like" faith of her son Greg that Mom Lillie is now in the arms of Our Compassionate Lord and Saviour. He has taken her into his arms and whispered to her those words we all long to hear "Well Done! My good and faithful servant. Come with me and enter into My kingdom"....

Our deepest condolences to all and you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ To my brother in law and family. I was very sad to hear about the passing of your mother. Lily was a very kind and generous person. She accepted us as family immediately and always made us feel welcome when we were in her presence. We always enjoyed the time we spent together, as it was very special to us. Lily was a wonderful person and a joy to know.

May God charge his angels to watch over you during this difficult time and grant you his peace which surpasses all understanding.

“ To Cousin Greg, Jetta and Andre

We would like to send my deepest condolences and Love out to you and your family. We will miss Aunt Lilly no matter how she felt she would always support and attend whatever the Joyner Family was planning and giving. Greg, Marvin is looking down on you he is smiling. He is very proud of you and how you have plan you'll mother's Homecoming. God took her home, It was his will, but in our hearts, we love her still. Her memory is as dear today as in the hour she passed away. We often think of her when we are all alone but in our hearts we have a smile cause god has called her home. God be with you and your family in your weakest time. We Love You##imported-begin##Sheila Joyner-Tyler and Chris Tyler##imported-end##

“ Words can't express how I am feeling right now. Part of my heart is now missing. This was my mother and I am a mama's boy. I thank God for having such a fine soul in my life for such a long time. Now
God has decided that he wants her more and in my grief I am learning to accept that. Peace, Love and Blessings to all who have shared your thoughts, your encouraging words, your kind acts and your blessings.##imported-begin##Greg Joyner##imported-end##

“ Greg,

I just want to offer my sincere condolences to you and your family for your loss. Although this is a very difficult time for you, let the many cherished and pleasant memories of your dear Mom, as well as the great times you shared with her, help you get through. Having lost my Mom back in 2005, I know full well that there's no one quite like Mom! Stay strong and know that she's up in Heaven with the angels. As you have made many good friends over the years, we'll be sure to keep your Mom, you, and your family in our thoughts and prayers. Take care!!!

“ To the Joyner Family:

Lillie and I moved into the Stonehedge Community the same year and remained neighbors for many. She showed her unwavering support by giving me one of my first book signings at her home in 2004. After I moved away, we talked occasionally on the phone. I will miss her presence here on earth, but rejoice in the peace I know she has found with God, whom she faithfully worshipped.

"My voice has been quieted; Never again shall an utterance be heard; Lift your hand, place it over your heart; It is there where we will share our special moments, now that we are apart; My footsteps have been made still; Not by mine, but by His will; Oh, but if you could see the smile on my face, you'd get your bags ready for your journey to this place; My weeping is forever hushed; Narry a tear will I again wipe away; And should you eyes refuse to run dry, remember these words I leave with you today; My sorrow is forever gone; My struggle is in the past; My suffering is over and done; For I have endured my very last; So in your pause when you think of me; Don't wish for the way things used to be; I'm at home, safe from hurt, harm, or violence; Shsssh, listen; It is there where you will find the Beauty In My Silence."

Love and Best Wishes;##imported-begin##Ethel D. Arrington##imported-end##
