“ Good afternoon family. My name is Miriam (formerly Baltimore) Witherspoon and I want to extend my deepest condolences to you. My message is late as I had gotten behind on reading my newspapers and came across the obituary today for Mrs. Bush, with that same soft smile that I remember. My mother, Winnie Elizabeth Baltimore, used to work with your mother at the Veterans Administration on Vermont Avenue in Washington, DC and they were very close friends. My mother passed away in 1980 and I still have a note from Mrs. Bush expressing condolences, and also Mrs. Bush's signature in my mother's retirement book. I will always remember Mrs. Bush because she was so very kind to me and my brothers when we used to visit the Veterans Administration as kids, and for being so kind to us when my mother passed away. I watched the home going video, very touching. If there is a program/write up, please let me know. I can share my contact information with you or the funeral home. In my prayers, always. Blessings and safety. Miriam Witherspoon

“ To the Wellington Family,

*We are sending condolences to you for Lois.
She was a sweet, sweet cousin.*

I remember as a child when I came up to visit granddaddy; I spent time with Lois. Folks would ask her 'is that your daughter?' It was an honor to me for people to think I was her daughter. I was so proud.

I know she will be missed but she is now with the Lord and her family! We will all see her again soon and very soon.

Love y'all, Stephanie Holmes Cunningham and family

“ *From: Jeretha Gardner, Alex, VA
To David and his Family
As you have been there many times for me during my life, my prayers and my heart goes out to you at this very painful time. I am sure that the same blood, full of love, concern for others, generosity and leadership, ran through Lois' vein. You have served as a "rod of hope" to the hopeless- a ray of light to the blind, for many in the Shaw Area and United Planning Organization over 40 years ago. After all these years, I still treasure your leadership and generous kindness. Our God will be kind to you and your family during these painful times.*

“ We are saddened to learn about Ms. Bush passing. In just a little while all of the pain and sorrow that we feel from the death of our love one will cease and be replaced with joy, because the former things would have passed away. With caring thoughts.
