

Lorraine J. Gilpin

May 26, 1965 - October 2, 2019

Lorraine Janet Gilpin was born May 26, 1965 to John Moses and Celia Mae Gilpin in Washington, DC. Lorraine attended the Rudolph Elementary School, Paul Jr. High and graduated from Coolidge High School in 1983. Lorraine attended University of the District of Columbia and later went to work at the National Institutes of Health.

Lorraine accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and joined Brightwood United Methodist Church at an early age. Lorraine enjoyed recreational activities with her family and friends especially her favorite cousin Angela who preceded her in death. Lorraine's health began to fail in her young adult life and she spent many years in health care facilities in the Washington Area. She succumbed to her long and tedious battle on the second day of October.

Lorraine leaves a loving son, Justin; her parents, Celia Mae Gilpin of Washington, DC and John (Sandra) Gilpin of Landover Hills, Maryland; two aunts, Josephine Clorey of Washington, DC and Lillie Ford of Beaverdam, Virginia; three uncles, Dr. Clem Gilpin of Middletown, Pennsylvania, Jerry Gilpin of Beaverdam, Virginia, Robert Lee Werts of Capital Heights, Maryland; one great aunt, Thelma Jackson of Beaverdam, Virginia and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ My cousin Lorraine was the funniest person I ever knew. I remember growing up with Lorraine and spending many holidays with her and my Aunt Celia and Uncle John. We were both Cowboys fans in a house of Redskin fans. I will miss her very much!
