“ The Mystic Valley Area Branch of the NAACP shares in condolences with the Stone family at the passing of Louis Stone. Louis along with his wife Ida worked tirelessly in our West Medford, Massachusetts community as champions of civil rights and equality for all. We have lost another great warrior in the struggle to achieve equal rights and justice for all without regard to race in the passing of Louis Stone. While released from his earthly bonds we are inspired by his past earthly works and spirited forward to achieving a nation that is truly color blind. Louis Stone you are remembered fondly in your hearts.
