“ Larry Covington & Family:

May the love, peace, and comfort of God rest with you and the Covington family in the loss of your sister, Louise. Paul tells us in Rom 8:28 “all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called for His purpose”. Louise has been called home by her Heavenly Father from her earthly journey. We are to be ever so mindful that earth has no sorrow that God cannot heal. God leaves you and the family with fond memories of Louise that will forever serve as beacons of light in remembrance of her. “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted” - (Matthew 5:4)

“ To the Family, "Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal. My thoughts and prayers are with you. It was an honor and privilege to have met such a beautiful lady. I will always remember Ms. Covington (Aunt Louise) with a kind heart and a warm smile. I thank God that He allowed me to meet and to share in conversations with her. May God bless you.

“ Lou was one of the most gracious, caring, intelligent and wonderful ladies I have ever met. To meet her was to instantly love her. She will be missed but what a reunion is going on in Heaven with her families and friends. We will see her again, that smile will be the same. She will live in our hearts always. Rest now Louise A. Covington. Until we meet again, you will remain in our conversations. Carley and Helen L. Wiggins, Dillon County, South Carolina
